

© DB Cargo / Oliver Lang

An exclusive product for a challenging market

- Connects the most important locations of the pulp and paper industry within Germany and Europe
- Considers the growing needs of the pulp and paper industry
- Strong network with European partner railways
- One-stop shop for customised transport logistics solutions

Our service at a glance:

Product architecture:

- Defined transport chain including journey time and transport monitoring
- Exclusive support from the Pulp & Paper sector unit
- Proactive customer information in case of deviations from the ETA
- Optional service components, such as plant logistics, warehousing and door-to-door solutions

Benefits

- Strong European network as the backbone of the paper industry
- Top-performing seaport hinterland services
- On-time transportation
- Ensuring reliable supply and disposal processes

Your contact: Jürgen Röher, telephone: +49 421 221 2351, juergen.roeher@deutschebahn.com